

Washington Horsemen Tacoma Unit #1
Horsemen's Code of Conduct

I understand that Washington Horseman Tacoma Unit #1 is a community based organization dedicated to provide facilities for gathering together and exchanging ideas pertaining to horses and horsemen and to promote youth-oriented activities. As a member, I promise to engage in and support:

- The interests of horse breeders, owners, and admirers,
- The improvement of the breeding, training, showing and enjoyment of horses.
- The promotion and management of exhibits and shows for the education of those persons interested in horses, and
- The collection of funds for benevolent uses as well as for carrying out the purposes of this organization.

I agree that as a member of a community organization, I must adhere to a code of civility and conduct. I know that my continued participation in the organization is subject to my observance of the organization's rules. These rules include:

- Possession or use of illegal drugs or being under the influence of illegal drugs while on Tacoma Unit #1 property or leased premises.
- Discourtesy, rudeness or abusive language toward another member, employee, contractor, vender, or show participant.
- Verbal or physical harassment of another member, employee, contractor, volunteer, vender or show participant.
- Bullying language or behavior, and actual or threatened violence toward any individual or group.
- Conduct endangering the life, safety, health or well-being of others.

Now, having read and understood the Tacoma Unit #1 Horsemen's Code of Conduct, I hereby agree to abide by all the rules described above and fully realize that I am responsible for knowing and following all policies of the organization. I understand any organizational member, staff member, employee, or contractor who violate the Code of Conduct is subject to disciplinary action, up to and including suspension of your membership.
